State of Colorado Chief of Police for Carbondale Police Department

CARBONDALE, Colo. – Town of Carbondale Town Manager, Jay Harrington, has appointed Kirk Wilson to be the next Chief of Police for Carbondale Police Department. The Board of Trustees will be reviewing his appointment at the next regular board meeting on Tuesday, April 28, 2020.

Kirk Wilson is currently a Sergeant with the Rifle Police Department and has been serving there since 2002. Kirk was one of four finalists for the position. The finalists participated in four different community panels and a community meet-and-greet.

Thank you to the community members who were involved in the process, especially those who participated with the meet-and-greet and the community panels.

Upon approval of the Town Board, Kirk will commence working for the Town of Carbondale on June 1st. “I am excited about Kirk’s acceptance of my offer, we had four very strong candidates and Kirk excelled during the process. The future of the Carbondale Police Department is bright with strong leadership, talented officers and staff,” said Jay Harrington, Town Manager.
