CARBONDALE POLICE ARREST MALE AT CITY MARKET

Carbondale, CO – At approximately 5:38 p.m. the Carbondale Police Department was advised of a trespass at the Carbondale City Market. Officers arrived and spoke with the reporting party and store employees to locate the alleged person.

City Market employees located the male and directed officers to him. Officers informed the male he was being asked to leave by store management. Officers asked the male multiple times to provide identification. After the male refused multiple requests for identification, officers attempted to detain him. The male resisted and refused to comply to commands from the officers. After various attempts to arrest the male, officers were able to gain control of the male and placed him in handcuffs. No injuries were reported or observed.

The male was taken to the Carbondale Police Department where he was issued a summons into Carbondale Municipal Court for Disorderly Conduct, Resisting Arrest, Obstructing Government Operations.
